

The following are some of the organizations that have endorsed Urban Green's efforts to implement an urban tree conservation ordinance, a citizens task force, and an Urban Forestry Commission.

- Audubon Society of Portland - representing about 1000 Clackamas County members [Letter]
- Oregon League of Conservation Voters - representing about 1000 Clackamas County members [Letter]
- League Of Women Voters of Clackamas County [Letter]
- Friends of Trees
- Sierra Club
- Tualatin Riverkeepers
- Johnson Creek Watershed Council [Letter]
- Clackamas River Basin Council
- Friends of North Clackamas Parks
- Friends of Mt. Scott and Kellogg Creeks
- Friends of Rinearson Creek [Letter]
- The Tsunami Crew [Letter]
- Mike Houck and theUrban Greenspaces Institute [Letter]
- Members of the Tree Preservation Committee for Gresham
- Clackamas Community Land Trust (Letter, PDF)

Civic and Political Groups

- Executive Committee of the Clackamas County Democratic Party [Letter]
- Central Committee for the Democratic Party unanimously endorsed a resolution in support of the concept of a tree ordinance and the Task Force to provide a public process for adoption.
- Oak Grove Good Neighbors Association
- River Cities Forum
- Clackamas Land Trust
- Historic Milwaukie Neighborhood Association
- NW Housing Alternatives

Local CPOs

These CPOs are within the Urban Growth Boundary. We are happy to report that all of them have voted to support our efforts. For information about the CPOs, go to www.clackamas.us/citizenin/cpo.

- North Clackamas Citizens Association
- Southgate Planning Association
- Jennings Lodge CPO
- Oak Lodge Community Council
- Holcomb-Outlook CPO
- Hidden Springs Neighborhood Association (West Linn area)